

Bursary to attend the Australian Rangeland Society conference

Port Augusta, South Australia from 25 to 28 September 2017

See: <http://www.austrangesoc.com.au/pages/19th-biennial-conference.html>

Southern Gulf NRM is offering a bursary of $2,000

It will be a competitive process and application forms are available on request, from the Southern Gulf office:

Community Engagement, Joanna Seczkowski

07 4743 1888

communityengagement@southerngulf.com.au

Closing date: June 26, Monday

OBJECTIVES

- support development of knowledge and skills (capacity) in rangelands management in the Southern Gulf community
- support someone who will benefit personally from the experience, but who is also willing and able to influence others

Selection criteria to include:

- How the conference program is relevant to current role and interests – what the applicant hopes to learn by attending
- Whether the applicant is making a presentation or some other contribution at the conference
- The applicant's existing involvement in community and/or learning networks, as a basis for post-conference communication
- The applicant's proposal for post-conference information sharing

Funding Arrangements

Proof of conference registration and then attendance will be required. Southern Gulf NRM acknowledges that the $2000 will not necessarily cover all of the likely expenses. Funding for the bursary is provided by the Australian Government under the National Landcare Programme.
